

Abu Dhabi International Book Fair

Literary enthusiasts are in for a massive treat this month when top authors and booksellers descend on the capital for the annual book fair.

As well as visits by major publishing houses, the event will also see a host of international and Arabic writers revealing the secrets of their creativity during a series of lectures.

A number of celebrity chefs will be cooking up mouth-watering dishes at a special area for gastronomical books, while youngsters can pick up the latest kid's classics at the children's book section. Also check out a huge display of rare and precious books and manuscripts.

March 17 to 22, Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Centre, 9am to 1pm and 5pm to 10pm. Tel: (02) 6212975.
